SCHOOL BOOKS—SCHOOL BOOKS.

RHEUMATISM CURED.

DR HEW'S Nerve and Bone Liniment and Indian Vegetable Elixir, is the only certain and effectual remedy for Rheumatism, Gout, Contracted Cords, &c. In the most severe cases the above application was never known to fail. We might multiply a volume of testimonials to these facts, but prefer to have persons call where the above may be had, and where they can see such proofs of its efficacy, that would convince the most incredulous.

REDUCTION FOURFOLD IN PRICES—OR NOTHING.

A N article that every family must consider indispensable, when they know its power and value and which has heretofore been sold too high to bring it to all classes, has now been reduced fourfold in price, with a view that rich and poor, high and low, and in fact every human being may enjoy its comforts; and all who get it shall have the price returned to them if they are not delighted with its use. We assert, without the possibility of contradiction, that all burns and scalds, every external sore, old or fresh, and all external pains and aches, no matter where, shall be reduced to comfort by it in five minutes—saving life, limb or scar. No burn can be fatal if this is applied, unless the viscera are destroyed by the accident. It is truly magical, to appearance, in its effects. Enquire for "Connel's Magical Pain Extractor," at Comstock & Co's, 21 Cortland street. Price 25 cents, or four times as much for 50 cents, and ten times as much for $1.

THE SICK HEADACHE.

THIS DISEASE is one from which arises more misery to the human family than is generally supposed; not being directly fatal, it is often neglected, or persons resort so much to the use of purgatives and other medicines as to impair their general health, and often induce fatal diseases. The article—Dr. Spohn's HEADACHE REMEDY, now offered seems to have overcome these difficulties.

While its effects are most powerful and immediate in curing an attack or keeping it off, it is so perfectly mild and innocent as to be used for infants with the greatest effect and safety. This has now been tested by so many of the highest members of the community as to require no further proof.

TO THE OLD AND YOUNG.

HO! YE RED HEADS AND GREY' PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY.

EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.

Colors the Hair, and will not the Skin

THIS DYE is in form of a powder, which in plain matter of fact may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest RED or GREY HAIR to a dark brown, and by repeating a second or third night to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble, keep his hair any dark shade or perfect black; with a positive assurance that the powder, if applied to the skin, will not color it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair. Directions complete with the article. There is no coloring in this statement, as one can easily test.

These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated Chemist, DR. COMSTOCK, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public.

DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

JOHN S. SAWYARD, Editor.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1843.

FOR PRESIDENT,
HENRY CLAY,
OF KENTUCKY.

SEE FIRST PAGE.

REMOVAL.

The Whig and Courier Office has been removed to the spacious room in the second story of the Kenduskeag Market.

We heartily concur with the Commercial Advertiser, in the opinion that we have not in his country, a sufficient number of days appropriated to popular recreation, on which the routine of business is broken, and, as if by general consent, the mind is suffered to be relaxed, and the din of change, the stroke of the hammer, or the anxieties of trade, laid aside that we may seek the gratification of taste, and answer the demands of our social nature.

Such occasional suspensions of the serious pursuits of life have a meliorating influence upon the character, which is sure to grow harsh, selfish and contracted, under an unbroken pressure of business.

Health of Mr. Adams.

We are pained to learn," says the Boston Atlas, "that, though the venerable and revered man whose name commenced this paragraph has been at his seat in Congress every day of the session, yet his health is in a very delicate condition. We sincerely hope that no rigid sense of public duty will lead him to any unnecessary exposure or extraordinary fatigue. We have not the least doubt that the entire delegation from our State, of whatever party they may be, will unite in their efforts to lighten his burdens, and to render his situation as comfortable as it can be made. His life has been, and still continues to be, too valuable to the country to be lightly thrown away. We ardently hope he may spared to us yet many years."

Loss of the Brig Canton.

We learn from the New-Orleans Courier that the brig Canton, Capt. Anderson, bound to Boston with a full cargo of produce, came in contact with the ship Oregon at that city on the evening of the 9th, and sunk. This unfortunate disaster occurred in the middle of the river opposite the mint, and in such deep water that the brig altogether disappeared. We regret to state that a sailor was drowned in attempting to descend into the cabin after the collision. The Oregon received no injury.

Richard Pakenham, Esq., the newly appointed British Minister to the United States, is a cousin of the late Sir Edward Pakenham, who fell at the battle of New Orleans, and also a cousin of the late Duchess of Wellington. He is in his 47th year, and has represented Great Britain for several years in Mexico. During that period he has more than once been placed in positions which required the exercise of no common energy and diplomatic talent, and has invariably acquitted himself to the satisfaction of his government.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. American, says that when Mr. Adams presented his petition, asking the separation of New York from all connexion with Slavery, his voice was so feeble that he could scarcely be heard, but the moment the Speaker said the petition could not be received, Mr. A. suddenly raised his voice: the fire flashed from his eye, and the spirit of olden time overshadowed him. He was in an instant, a different man, and the energy of his soul at once vanquished the infirmity of his body.

The Whigs of Ohio will hold a State Convention, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor, and appointing Electors for President and Vice President, and two Delegates to the National Whig Convention, on the 10th day of January next, at Columbus.

St. John Church, we noticed last evening, is elegantly ornamented with evergreens, displaying a highly cultivated taste in such matters. Religious services will be held there this forenoon, as is usual with the Episcopal Church throughout the world.

Before the New York Superior Court, the action Veazie vs. the Mutual Insurance Co., to recover a policy of $10,000 on the loss of a vessel. Defendants put in a plea that the vessel was got off and repaired, and tendered to the plaintiff. The latter demurred and contended that defendants had admitted the general issue. Demurser allowed.

In the House, on the 16th, Mr. Hamlin gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to constitute the counties of Penobscot and Piscataquis, into a new collection district, and to establish Bangor, in the said county of Penobscot, a port of entry.

The last Charleston Courier says, it was rumored at Raleigh, a few days since, that Gen. Romulus M. Saunders, the Representative in Congress from that District, is to be nominated by the President as Minister to France.

The Hibernia steamer brought £31,000. This indicates that the balance of trade is in our favor even before our exports have gone forward. She also brought out a large cargo of goods.

The interior of our market houses appear quite Aog-iah lately.

The Tyler men in Ohio have issued a notice for a State Convention.

Christmas.

This Christian Festival has again returned. What a multitude of associations are connected with it. We wonder not that the day is observed throughout the world by some professing christians but rather that it is not everywhere observed as a sacred festival, by christians of every name.

The return of Christmas awakens a thousand pleasant and delightful associations of our youth, when it was our delight to think of being a good 'churchman' and as such to keep Christmas. How we loved to have our church in High Street elegantly trimmed with the evergreens! How we festooned the plume-like pine foliage over the windows of our home on Christmas eve! But we must not indulge in the recollection of these youthful gayeties, and we have not time for graver reflections. We give, however, the following lines written by a female friend.

Christmas Night,

Or the 'Church of Light,' so called by the inhabitants, who in some parts of Germany celebrate the birth of Christ as described in the poem.

It was the Saviour's birth night,
And stillness reigned around,
When from the church tower pealing,
The bell sent forth its sound:
And soon from peaceful slumber,
It roused each pillow'd head;
And called him to the service—
The midnight hour had fled.

Oh, glorious was the scenery!
Glittering in splendor bright,
The stars, a dazzling diadem
Seen in the bough of night.
Forest and fane reflected
Their soft and silvery sheen,
And chandiliers were lighted,
And torches, too, were seen.

And multitudes were moving
Before the morning's dawn,
And calling to each other,
"For us a Saviour's born;"
And then sweet infant voices
Burst forth in hymns of praise,
Then, from the church's steeple,
The bright cross met their gaze.

Again the bell came pealing
With stern and solemn sound,
And hymns and joyous greetings
In its deep tones were drawn'd;
And with their torches gleaming
The shadowy streets along,

To the nocturnal service
Moved forth the pilgrim throng.

The antique church was lighted—
Tapestries their radiance flung,
O'er the rich wreaths of evergreen
Around the altars hung.
The organ pealed triumphantly,
And voices soft and loud,
Joined in the 'Hallelujah'
That floated o'er the crowd.

And the young children's voices
In silvery cadence rung,
With the sweet song the angels
O'er Bethlehem's manger sang.
And when the last soft echo
Of that sweet strain was o'er,

All knelt and prayed for pardon
The blessed cross before.

Oh, 'twas a glorious vision,
The 'church of lights' that hour!
A bright resplendent picture
That mocks the painter's power.
There age, and youth, and childhood
Were mingled in the crowd,
And were before the Saviour
In faith and fervor bowed.

The first rose tints of morning
Gleam in the eastern sky,
The stars were softly fading
From out their throne on high.

And nature's frosty mantle
Seemed gimmered with jewels rare,
Reflecting gorgeous lustre
From a thousand torches glare.

Again the deep toned organ
Pealed with exulting sound,
Again the 'Hallelujah'
Floated the church around,
Again sweet infant voices
Sang softly 'Peace on earth—'
Oh, like a choir of seraphim,
They hymned the Saviour's birth.

Say not that it was mockery,
The service that bright night—
Something perchance of pageantry
Was mingled with the rite;
But should not prayer and praises
And joyous greetings flow
From lips of age and childhood?—
Christ ransoms us from woe.

CONGRESS.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, Dec. 19.

The Senate to-day sat a few minutes with open doors, then went into Executive session, and confirmed the nomination of Matthew St. Clair Clarke for Auditor without opposition. They also confirmed the new Postmaster of New Orleans, and two or three others of small importance. Isaac Hill's case was not acted on. The Senate was not over fifteen minutes in Secret Session, and then adjourned. They take the world easy in that wing of the Capitol.

In the House, the day was spent uselessly.—The reference of the President's Message was the order.

Bowlin complained that the Committee on Commerce was too Eastern and demanded a Select Committee.

Mr. Holmes of South Carolina Chairman of the Committee of Commerce, said plumply to the Western man—"Join us in breaking down the Tiffey, and we'll go for any R ver appropriations you may ask."

Bolier of Ala. very sensibly insisted that Congress should think of getting some money into the Treasury before it voted a great deal.

The upshot of the matter was an adjournment, with a prospect that the House will spend a week in referring the Message.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.

In the House to-day, Houston, on leave, introduced a bill to reduce and graduate prices of the public lands to settlers and cultivators.

The resolution of Mr. G. Davis on the subject of the rights to seats of the general-ticket members, modified at the suggestion of Mr. Elmer, so as to instruct the Committee on Elections to inquire and report on the certificates of elections or other credentials of all the members returned to serve in the House, and whether elected in conformity to the constitution and laws, was taken up, adopted by yeas 148, Nays 22.

Mr. Barnard's amendment to the journal to insert thereon his protest and the facts accompanying, again came up, Mr. Dringgoole's question of reception pending. A motion of Mr. Stenrod to lay this on the table prevailed by nearly a party vote,—Yea 116, Nays 59; thus finally disposing of the matter, suppressing and excluding from the Journal even the record of the protest.

The presentation of petitions was then resumed from Saturday, Mr. Adams having the floor, and the scenes of excitement and uproar usual on like occasions being reacted.—Southern Members on their feet in all parts of the Hall, intently watching the 'old man eloquent' and 'venerable,' (and formidable) on such occasions to his comrades and to the Speaker, for the exercise of whose powers of discrimination and nice construction there is frequent occasion,) as he takes from his drawer and presents one by one the petitions, upon which they are ready and eager to pounce and dispose of by the application of the 21st (now 25th) rule, by motion to lay on the table, &c.

In Senate, a communication was received from the State Department relative to the changes in the Commercial restrictions of other nations: laid on the table and ordered printed.

Mr. Woodbridge moved the printing of 500 copies of Mr. Wm Cost Johnson's Report (in the House, at the last session) on the State Debts. Laid over, at the instance of Mr. King. The Senate adjourned.

A chair of peculiar construction has been invented in New York, which it is said will give a dyspeptic or debilitated person, all the exercise of riding on horseback, without the severity of that mode of locomotion. It is highly recommended.

The weekly BANGOR COURIER, of the enlarged size, containing a great variety of matter, and the whole of that admirable story, The Poor Relation, will be published this afternoon. Single copies can be had at the office—price 4 cts.

CLEANLINESS OF THE HEAD AND HAIR.

STRANGE it is that persons who attend strictly to personal cleanliness, baths, &c., should neglect the Head—the Hair—the most essential—the most exposed—and the most beautiful, when properly cared for, of all the gifts of the Creator. Perfectly free may it be kept of dandruff or sear, with a certainty that the hair cannot fall out, by the use of the BALM OF COLUMBIA. Ladies will you make your toilet without this article? I answer fearlessly no, if you have once tried and experienced its purifying effects—sweet perfume.

COUGHS, COLDS, &c.

COUGHS, Colds, Spitting of Blood, Asthma, and all complaints of the chest, lungs and liver, will be cured by the Extract of Lungwort, when all else fails. This we assert without fear of the least contradiction. Besides, it does not require the false certificate of the panaceas, balsams and candies, to induce invalids to use this great lung restorative. One trial will convince the sceptical, that its virtues are far above price. To be found only, at G. W. LADD'S, corner of Smith's Block, West Market Place.

LORRAINE'S PILLS,
OR VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINE
CURATIVE
OF THE

French College of Health, in Paris.

THE following letter was received yesterday by mail from Salem. It gives another evidence of the great success of Lorraine's Vegetable Universal Pills.

Sir—I have been for many years a sufferer from the ravages of Scrofula and Cancerous Humors, which at last seated on the vitals, and exhibited all the threatening symptoms of consumption. The general inutility of all remedies awakened my enquiries as to the thousand different methods of cure, to most of which I had recourse without receiving benefit. I accidentally noticed a remarkable cure by Lorraine's Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. I sent to Boston and got a box. By the use of them I found immediate relief and was soon restored to a perfect state of health.

J. E. NEWHALL.
Salem, 21st May, 1841.

The following letter from J. B. Light, Esq. is worthy of notice.

Sir—It took one of Lorraine's Vegetable Pills last evening for a pain in my head, that had effected me for several days, occasioned by taking cold. I soon felt very calm, and quiet, and a state of general repose came on, which had great charms, and I enjoyed one of the most comfortable and refreshing nights rest that I ever did in my life. I rose in the morning in my usual state of health, and believe it is my duty to recommend this medicine.

Yours truly,
J. B. LIGHT.
Nov. 20th, 1841.

[From Boston Daily Mail.]
Somebody wisely says, that a cap loaded with jewels and flowers will not cure the headache, nor gold chains prevent the consumption. Lorraine's Vegetable Pills have done both.

SIR—I have been effectually cured of a severe headache by the use of Lorraine's Pills.

SARAH NOYES.

SIR—My daughter had all the threatening symptoms of a Consumption, such as cough, pain in the chest, &c., together with general debility, but has had her health restored by Lorraine's Pills.

Rev. J. KNIGHT.

New York City, Nov. 1, 1841.

Family Medicine.

SIR—I have used Lorraine's Pills in my family as a family medicine, and I would most earnestly recommend them to all persons, as the best medicine that can be procured. I would not be without them—they operate mildly, and never fail to give immediate relief. Until I used these Pills I was obliged to pay from 20 to $100 per year for medicines and physicians, since then I have had no other doctor than Dr. Lorraine's Pills. JAMES NEAL.

Hartford, Conn. July 8.

Lame Back.
Sarah Snow was cured of a lame back in one day, when she had been unable to dress herself alone for two weeks.

Susan Jones of Boston, cured in 36 hours of lame back and side of three weeks standing.

Sick Headache.

Mrs. Bird of Providence says, that Lorraine's Pills have proved a real blessing to her. It has surpassed any thing that has been brought to the public notice. I have been cured of a sick headache that had afflicted me for years, by the use of Lorraine's Pills.

THE CONDITION.
The condition upon which nature gives health to man, is a watchful care to keep his stomach and bowels free from morbid and unhealthy accumulations. Lorraine's Pills admirably effect this, because they cleanse the bowels and purify the blood.

The human body is always healthy when the bowels are regular, the blood circulates freely, and disease invariably commences when obstructions take place in the bowels.

The extraordinary virtues of Lorraine's Pills depend upon extracts of over 50 different vegetables, all so admirably combined as to purify, nourish and invigorate the human system.
